

Top Logan School Sport Achievers Revealed for 2024

TRINITY COLLEGE BEENLEIGH

TESS HANNIGAN (Cross Country and Athletics)

Hannigan is an athletic marvel who represented Queensland's team at the Australian Championships after her second-place effort in the under-20 steeplechase at the Queensland track and field championships.

Tess Hannigan of Trinity College, Beenleigh, is track and Cross Country young gun.

A big-hearted performance, the Trinity College student was second in cross country last year at the Queensland Schools championships in cross country, and first in the cross country relay team.

She was also a state representative at the National Cross-Country Championships, finishing second and then first in the relay.

Tess was also the 2023 2000m national steeplechase champion.

Joshua Sipple-Asher is an athletic ace from Trinity College, Beenleigh.

JOSHUA SIPPLE ASHER (Athletics)

A Year 9 student, Joshua was the 2023 under-15 state champion in shot put, discus and javelin, as well as the Queensland All Schools State Champion for shot and discus, among many other achievements.

EMILY HOLMES (Swimming)

What a swimmer this young woman is, an elite athlete who swept to third place in the backstroke at the Australian All Ages Swimming Championships after smashing medal winning performances at the state titles in the 200m backstroke, 100m backstroke and the 200m butterfly at 2024 School Sport Australia State Championships.

Emily Holmes is an ace swimmer from Trinity College, Beenleigh.

This followed her fantastic form in 2023 when she was the state 200m backstroke and 50m Freestyle state short course champion, and a gold medal winner (1500m) at the All-Age Nationals as well as being a bronze medalist in the 400 IM last year.

She was also a state champion last year and was promoted into the Queensland talent squad.

MIA PLUCKNETT (Equestrian)

Plucknett is a wonderful talent who this year earned a place in the Queensland Grand Nationals side.

Her bumper 2024 also included a Champion Owner/Rider Student Category winner at the 2024 Grand Nationals, first place in the Student Category at the hotly contested Hunter Galloway Trophy Sydney Royal Easter Show 2024 and also a qualifying performance for the 2025 Grand National Team.

All this after an outstanding 2024 which saw her:

- named Champion Student Hunter Galloway of the Year
- announced as the Equestrian Queensland Student Horse and Rider of the Year
- selected in the Queensland team to compete at the national championships
- earn first place at the Australian Stock Horse Brisbane Exhibition
- named best Junior Rider Royal Brisbane Show

Bella Metekingi is a softball gun from Trinity College.

ISABELLA METEKINGI (Softball and Hockey)

A year 9 student, Metekingi made the 2022 Queensland schoolgirls softball team and the 2023 Queensland Country Softball (under-14s) before progressing to the 2024 Queensland under-16 team.

TAYLOR GARSIDE (Hockey)

South Coast region school sport hockey team representative for the past three years, she has been a back-to-back selection in the Queensland School Sport Hockey teams of 2023 and 2024.

BARBARA MOCKA (Tennis)

Mocka has the winning touch, last year winning the Rod Laver Junior Qld State Championships doubles and later finished in the final of the Qld State Masters Championships.

A South Coast School Sport Team sport representative, she is the 2024 Study and Play USA tournament singles and doubles champion and also the Brisbane Lawn Tennis Association under-16 doubles champion.

SUMMA PONT (Rugby League Referee)

Rugby league would not exist without people like Pont blowing the whistle. She is highly thought of, a person who trains with the NRLW referees and who gained experience in the Harvey Norman Women's championships. She has been a match official at both the Queensland schoolboys and at the Queensland Murri carnival.
